

Article Overview

Cable tray prices in Vietnam vary depending on material, type, and customization, with manufacturers offering competitive rates and tailored solutions.

Standard Cable Tray Pricing

In Vietnam, cable tray prices depend on material type (carbon steel, stainless steel, galvanized steel), tray type (ladder, perforated, solid bottom), and dimensions. Suppliers like Dong Kwang Vina and Dat Vinh Tien offer competitive pricing for standard cable trays, emphasizing durability, corrosion resistance, and compliance with project requirements . Prices are generally quoted per meter or per unit, and bulk orders often receive discounts.

Custom-Made Cable Trays

For custom specifications, manufacturers such as Vinadenka provide tailored production based on sketches or project requirements. Custom options include:

- o Specific dimensions and tray widths
 - o Material selection (stainless steel, galvanized, powder-coated)
 - o Surface treatments (hot-dip galvanizing, electrostatic painting)
 - o Integration with electrical panels or embedded wiring
 - o Special designs for industrial, power plant, or infrastructure projects
- Custom-made trays are priced individually based on complexity, material, and production volume, so suppliers typically provide quotes after reviewing project specifications.
